

Dear Colleagues,

I strongly urge rejection or at least careful reconsideration of proposed FCC regulations governing ownership of multiple outlets.

Any seriour conservative should be very hesitant to approve a drastic change in the regulations which will alter the established patterns of media ownership and result in substantial consolidation of ownership.

Very truly yours,

Atty. Jonathan Robison